

Little League Sponsors Ball

Bob Stone and his "Surf Riders" will present music for listening and dancing at the "Surf Riders Ball," sponsored by the Torrance National Little League Saturday, June 24, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Torrance Elks Hall, 1820 Abalone, Torrance, (located 1 blk. west of Western Ave. and one blk. south of Carson St.) will be the scene of the event, where tickets, at $1 per person, may be purchased at the door.

Chairman Mrs. Hiro Muranaka and her committee of Mmes. Andy Anderson, Joe Rogers and Sam Snyder, announced that there will be door prizes.

She announced casual wear will be the order of the evening.

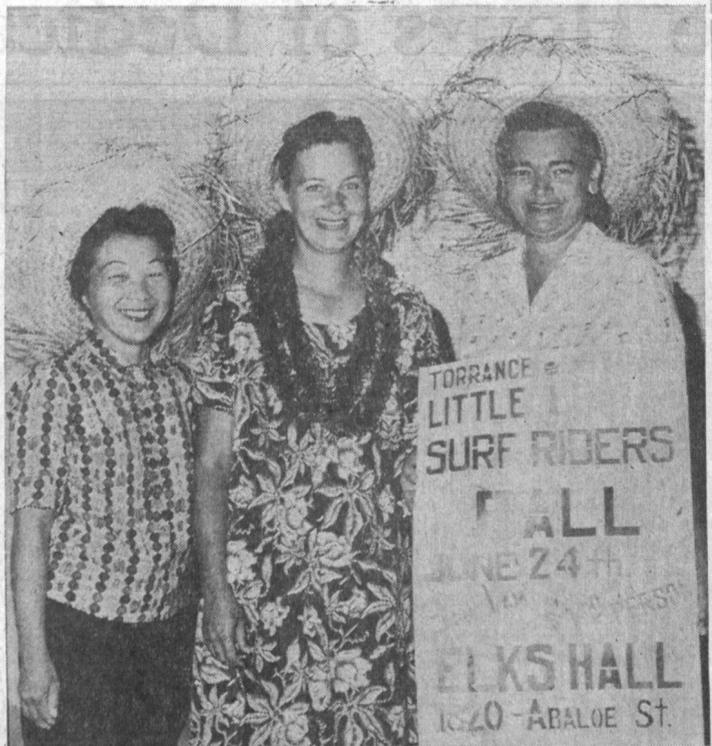

Muu-Muus for ladies and sport togs for gents will be worn. For refreshments, chips and a variety of dips will be served.

REMODELING JOBS

Approximately 20% of the amount advanced through FHA Title One property development loans is spent on plumbing and heating improvements, Anaconda home specialists report. In many older homes, flexible copper tubing makes it possible to replace rusted water lines with a minimum of cutting or opening of partition walls.

FEED LAWN

Feed lawns lightly one a month. Water them thoroughly at least once a week during summer months.

SURF RIDERS DELIGHT and the delight of all will be touched Saturday night with the Surf Riders Ball open to all. Sponsoring the event to be held in Elk's Hall, 1820 Abalone St.,

Women to Serve With Association

Mrs. Catherine Mundell, Mrs. Corrine Ely and Mrs. Doris Luli of the Carson area are among new officers who will lead the Association of Educational Office Employees for the 1961-62 school year. They were installed last week at the group's annual breakfast held at the Biltmore Bowl.

Mrs. Mundell of Banning High School was installed as second vice president; Mrs. Ely of San Pedro High as third vice president; and Mrs. Luli of Harbor City Elementary School as historian.

Mrs. Dorothy Curtis, secretary to Principal Norman McLeod of North Hollywood High School, was seated as head of the 7001-member organization, which is composed of clerical personnel in the Los Angeles City School System's offices and schools.

Mrs. Curtis succeeds outgoing President Mrs. Tillie Hooper, secretary at McDonnell Avenue Elementary School in Central Los Angeles. Assistant Superintendent John G. Fox, chief of the system's senior high schools, was installing officer.

Bible Conclave Final Plans Set

"Walk in the Name of Jehovah Forever," keynote address by Bible scholar Theodore Jaracz, sets the theme for semi-annual three-day circuit assembly, announced L. E. Olliff, presiding minister of the Torrance Congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Final plans were completed last night to join 18 congregations today in specialized public activities at Washington High School, 108th and Denker Ave., Los Angeles.

Baptismal of newly-dedicated ministers will highlight Saturday's activities. The climax will be reached Sunday at the 3 p.m. public lecture, "The 20th Century in Bible Prophecy," stated Olliff. "Attendance in excess of 2300 is anticipated at this lecture, as wide public acceptance has marked this free Bible educational work," said Olliff.

"Interest by local residents has been kindled by these semi-annual assemblies because they are models of organization, order, peacefulness and happiness—
